

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Pediatric Emergency Medicine, Pediatricians and Advanced Practice Providers

Children's Hospital Colorado
Here, it's different.™

We make a bigger difference, together.

The University of Colorado School of Medicine, Department of Pediatrics, Section of Emergency Medicine in conjunction with Children's Hospital Colorado is seeking full-time, pediatric emergency medicine providers for our emergency department sites. We are also seeking pediatricians and advanced practice providers committed to the care of acutely ill and injured children to staff our free-standing and dual track urgent care sites in the Children's Colorado Systems of Care.

The Children's Colorado Systems of Care consists of two dual track emergency department/urgent care sites, three freestanding urgent care centers and an after-hours telehealth program in the Denver-metro area. All told, our urgent care services see more than 80,000 children annually and our Anschutz Medical Campus Emergency Department sees an additional 80,000 patients annually.
